From Tuesday December 13. to Saturday December 17. 1743.

St. James's, December 13.

THIS Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, was preſented to the King by Humphry Sydenham, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; who was introduced by the Right Hon. Earl Powlet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, and offer our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Arrival to theſe your Britiſh Dominions. The gracious Interpoſition of the Divine Providence in protecting your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon from thoſe imminent Dangers to which you ſo generouſly expoſed it in Defence of the Liberties of Europe, (with which thoſe of this Nation are moſt intimately connected) and your Return hither in Health and Safety, fill our Hearts with Joy, and demand out utmoſt Thankfulneſs.

The Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, we eſteem a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Care for the Intereſt of your Kingdoms; and we hope it will anſwer your Majeſty's gracious Deſigns, by uniting and ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt, and farther ſecuring the Liberties of Europe.

We beg Leave alſo to congratulate your Majeſty on the Birth of another Prince; an Event which gives us the greateſt Pleaſure, as we look on every Increaſe of your illuſtrious Family, as an additional Security to our preſent Conſtitution, and an Earneſt of its Continuance to future Ages.

We pray God to grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, and that there may never be wanting a Prince of your Royal Houſe to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, this Ninth Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

St. James's, December 13.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled, was preſented to the King by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Duncannon, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; who was introduced by the Right Honourable Earl Powlet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby, in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and happy Return to this Kingdom.

The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Cauſe of Liberty, and the great Occaſion of that Succeſs, your own Magnanimity and perſonal Conduct, demand the ſincereſt Acknowledgments of all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects. In the farther Proſecution of this great Cauſe, we truſt your Majeſty will always find Reaſon to bleſs that Providence which has appointed you the Ruler over this brave and free People, whoſe effectual Aſſiſtance your Majeſty will never want, and we are confident will always deſerve.

The

The diſtinguiſhed Behaviour and Gallantry of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, upon his firſt Appearance in Arms, muſt afford your Majeſty the trueſt Satisfaction, as it is the juſt and natural Effect of your own Royal Example and Inſtructions; and gives us the moſt pleaſing Aſſurance of what may farther be expected from him upon all Occaſions, where the Intereſt and Honour of this Nation is concerned.

We beg Leave farther to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and on the Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince. We know that the Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberties, and all that is dear to us, depend on your Majeſty's Perſon and Poſterity; and therefore we cannot but think every Addition to your Royal Family a farther Security of theſe Privileges; and pray that your Majeſty may long live the Bleſſing of theſe Kingdoms, and reign in the Hearts of all your Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforeſaid, the Tenth Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

St. James's, December 14.

This Day the following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Aſſiſtants of the Town and Pariſh of Tiverton, was preſented to the King by the Right Hon. Sir William Yonge, Recorder of the ſaid Borough, who was introduced by the Right Hon. Earl Powlet, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, and Aſſiſtants of the Town and Pariſh of Tiverton, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to theſe your Britiſh Dominions.

The great and hazardous Part which your Majeſty, at the Head of the Britiſh Forces, ſo glorioufly took in the late Battle at Dettingen, is a freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's real Regard to the Liberties of Europe, of which your Majeſty gave an early Proof at Oudenarde againſt the ſame Common Enemy; and the Bravery of his Royal Highneſs the Duke convinces us, that a Zeal for the Intereſt of this Kingdom, and true Courage, run through the ſeveral Branches of your Auguſt Houſe.

As the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Family is (under God) the greateſt Security to our Religion and Liberty, we ſincerely congratulate you on the late Increaſe of it, and on the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark; to the Aſſiſtance of which Royal Houſe, the Succeſs of the Grand Alliance againſt the Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe, was in a great Meaſure owing.

Permit us, Sir, to aſſure your Majeſty of our hearty Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and of our ſincere Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long reign in the Affections of your Subjects, and that there may never fail one of your Majeſty's Family to ſet on the Throne of theſe Realms.

Given under our Common Seal this Fifth Day of December 1743.

St. James's, December 15.

The following Addreſſes were this Day preſented to the King; which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and other principal Inhabitants of the City and County of the City of Exeter, moſt humbly approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Congratulations on your ſafe Return to theſe Kingdoms.

Your Majeſty's perſonal Bravery and military Conduct, in the late Battle at Dettingen, demand the warmeſt and earlieſt Expreſſions of Thankfulneſs that a grateful People can offer; and we adore the Goodneſs of Divine Providence, in the Preſervation of your Majeſty amidſt the imminent Dangers to which a tender Concern for the Liberties of Europe, expoſed your ſacred Perſon.

We take Part in the publick Joy, upon the Birth of another Son to the Prince of Wales, and the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; Events which enlarge our Proſpect of a long Continuance of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Family, and tend to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt in Europe.

We are truly ſenſible of our Happineſs under the Protection of a King, who prefers the real Intereſt of his Subjects to all the Glories of Ambition; and when the Common Danger calls him forth, chearfully leads them on to Victory, againſt the Enemies to the Religion and Liberties of Great Britain.

We beg Leave to tender your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our unſhaken and inviolable Loyalty and Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Royal Houſe, and that we ſhall always behave as becomes the moſt Dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Princes.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe Return to this Kingdom, and alſo upon the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Increaſe of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince, Events eſteemed by us a further Security to our Laws and Liberties, which, we muſt ever gratefully acknowledge, acknowledge, have been inviolably maintained under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

We further beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the glorious Succeſs of your Arms, owing, under God, to your Majeſty's Conduct and Intrepidity; and to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of the Divine Goodneſs, in preſerving your Majeſty, amidſt ſo many imminent Dangers to which your Royal Perſon hath been expoſed, for the Defence of the Houſe of Auſtria; on whoſe Support, at this Time, the Honour and Safety of theſe Kingdoms, and the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, ſo much depend.

That it may pleaſe Almighty God ſtill to protect your Majeſty; and that the ſame good Succeſs may attend your Arms, till you ſee the Liberties of Europe in general, and the Peace and Happineſs of your Kingdoms, ſettled upon a firm and laſting Foundation: And that your Majeſty may live many Years to have the Satisfaction and Glory of Reigning over a free and happy People, gratefully acknowledging the Bleſſings they ſhall enjoy through your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Paternal Care for them: And that theſe your Kingdoms may deſcend to your lateſt Poſterity, is the ardent and ſincere Prayer of your Majeſty's Loyal and Faithful Subjects of this Corporation.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

St. James's, December 16.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in Great Britain.

The Common Cauſe of Liberty urged your Majeſty to take Arms; and your Majeſty ſhewed your Zeal for that Cauſe, by expoſing your Sacred Perſon on that important Day, when your Troops, animated by your Majeſty's Preſence and Magnanimity, obtained a memorable Victory at Dettingen, as advantagious to your Allies, as glorious to your Majeſty.

The Birth of another Prince in your Royal Houſe gives us the greateſt Joy, as it enlarges our Proſpect of being the longer governed by Princes deſcended from your Majeſty.

The Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark, is alſo an Event, which, as it muſt give Peaſure to your Majeſty, and add Strength to the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe, muſt alſo fill our Hearts with Joy.

May Providence protect your Majeſty; may we and our Poſterity long be governed by your Majeſty and Princes deſcended from you: Theſe are the Wiſhes of a People firmly attached to your Majeſty, and who will run all Hazards for the Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City of Dublin to be hereunto affixed, the Fifth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1743.

St. James's, December 16.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, was preſented to the King by the Right Hon. the Lord Dupplin and James Martin, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your People, from the Dangers of War, to which your Majeſty has ſo freely expoſed your moſt valuable Life.

It was with the higheſt Satisfaction that we ſaw your Majeſty ſo ſeaſonably exert the Strength and Power of Great Britain in Defence of the Common Liberties of Europe. And permit us, Sir, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection, particularly to congratulate your Majeſty on the late Victory obtained at Dettingen by the Bravery of your Subjects, conducted by your Majeſty, and animated by your Example.

The Increaſe of your Royal Family, by the Birth of another Prince, and the Strengthening of the Proteſtant Intereſt, by the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, afford a moſt ſolid Pleaſure to all thoſe who juſtly value the Bleſſings that we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and who deſire to have them tranſmitted to their Poſterity.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we will, as far as in us lies, endeavour to ſupport your Majeſty's Government, as the beſt and trueſt Way of expreſſing our Gratitude to you, and ſecuring the Liberties of our Country.

Given under our Common Seal, the Tenth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, 1743.

St. James's, December 16.

The following Addreſs was this Day preſented

to

to his Majeſty; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return into this Kingdom, from a ſucceſsful and victorious Campaign; acknowledging, with grateful Hearts, the great Goodneſs of Almighty God to theſe Kingdoms, in protecting your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon amidſt the many and great Dangers, in which your invaluable Life has been expoſed, in Defence of the Common Cauſe and Liberties of Europe.

We alſo, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your Majeſty, as well on the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, as on the Increaſe of your Royal Poſterity by the ſafe and happy Delivery of the Princeſs of Wales of a Prince, always thinking ourſelves, as well in Gratitude as Duty, obliged to pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous; and may we and our Poſterity ever be bleſſed in having a Prince deſcended from your Royal Houſe to ſet on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guild-hall of the ſaid Borough and Town, this Ninth Day of December 1743.

Leiceſter-Houſe, Dec. 15.

This Day the Lord-Mayor, Court of Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and made their Compliments as follows.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſſes,

WE the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council Men of the City of London, humbly beg Leave to preſent our moſt hearty Congratulations, upon the ſafe Delivery and happy Recovery of Madam your Royal Highneſs, and the Increaſe of your illuſtrious Family, by the Birth of another Prince; an Event, which muſt greatly contribute to our Happineſs, as it ſtrengthens our preſent Conſtitution, and yields a further Proſpect of its Continuance in the Proteſtant Succeſſion of his Majeſty's Royal Line.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Joy, when we reflect on the many eminent Virtues, which, we promiſe ourſelves will be tranſmitted from your Royal Highneſſes to your Poſterity; form'd with the ſame generous and benevolent Diſpoſitions, for which you are ſo univerſally admired; and inſtructed by the ſame great Examples to pay a dutiful Obedience to his Majeſty, and a tender Regard for the Liberties of his Subjects.

Permit us likewiſe, Sir, to make uſe of this Opportunity, to return you our particular Thanks for the repeated Declarations of your Attachment to the Intereſts and Welfare of our City, of which you have ſo graciouſly condeſcended to become a Member; and with Minds truly ſenſible of the high Honour of your Princely Patronage and Protection, we offer up our conſtant Prayers, that your Royal Highneſſes may enjoy all Happineſs and Proſperity; and that your Deſcendants may ſucceſſively continue the Bleſſings derived from you to the lateſt Poſterity.

To which his Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you mine and the Princeſs's Thanks for this Inſtance of your Duty to the King, and of your Regard to us. My Children will, I hope, deſerve the Affection you now ſhow towards them; and I'll endeavour to inculcate early thoſe Sentiments into them, as are agreeable to the Laws and Liberties of the Country they have had the Happineſs to be born in. This City may always depend on my hearty Wiſhes for her Trade and Welfare.

Petersbourg, Nov. 19. Her Imperial Majeſty's Departure from hence for Moſcow is fixed for the 18th of next Month.

Copenhagen, Dec. 14. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Denmark has now made her publick Entry into this City, and her Marriage with the Prince has been finally celebrated and compleated. Their Royal Highneſſes are moſt happily ſettled together, in their own Court at Charlottenburg. The 11th Inſtant, (the Anniverſary of his Daniſh Majeſty's Birth-Day, N. S.) having been appointed for the publick Entry, they who were to aſſiſt in it aſſembled with their Coaches and Equipages about Eleven o' Clock in the Forenoon, upon a large Plain between this Place and Fridericksberg. About Two in the Afternoon, all being ready and ranged in due Order, a Squadron of the Life Guard began the Proceſſion, the reſt then filed off ſucceſſively, and the whole Train, which was of a vaſt Length of Horſemen, Livery Servants on Foot, Coaches and Six, &c. paſſed by the Coach wherein the Princeſs ſat with the Daniſh Princeſs Louiſa on her Left Hand. As the loweſt in Rank marched firſt, this Coach of Courſe came the laſt of all; it was immediately preceeded by the Prince of Denmark on Horſeback, and followed by the Prince of Wirtemberg, the reſt of the Regiment of Life-Guards cloſing the Rear. As ſoon as ever the Princeſs was within the Walls, the Cannon of the Town, the Citadel, and the Fleet, began to play, and continued firing till ſhe arrived at the Palace of Chriſtianburg, which took up more than two Hours from the firſt ſetting out. The Streets thro' which ſhe paſſed were lined on each Side with the Citizens in Arms, handſomely cloathed; the regular Troops being poſted in all the open Places.

Places. Several Triumphal Arches had been erected croſs the Way; the Front of every Houſe in the Paſſage was covered with Ornaments, and every Window and Place of Eminence crouded with Spectators. At the Door, and upon the loweſt Steps of the Great Stair-caſe of the Palace, her Royal Highneſs was waited for and received by the whole Court; the Prince leading her into the Queen's Apartment. After about an Hour's ſtay there, his Royal Highneſs led the Princeſs out again, with a Crown upon her Head; and being followed by their Majeſties, the Daniſh Princeſſes and Courtiers, went into the King's Antichamber, which was duly fitted up for the Celebration of the Marriage. This Ceremony was performed in the Royal Preſence, both the Domeſtick and Foreign Miniſters, with as many of the Courtiers of Diſtinction as could conveniently be admitted, ſtanding on each Side of the Room; and it conſiſted of Muſick, an Exhortation pronounced by the Preacher of the Court M. Blome, joining of Hands, Prayers, and the Nuptial Benediction. At the Concluſion their Majeſties roſe from their Seats, and in the moſt tender and affectionate Manner embraced the Bride firſt, and then the Bridegroom. As they return'd to the Queen's Apartment the King gave his Hand to the Princeſs, and the Queen was lead by the Prince. In the ſame Order they went to Supper in a very large Room, called the Knight's Hall, finely adorned and illuminated, where a figured Table was prepared, and magnificently ſerved for between ſeventy and eighty Perſons of both Sexes. Two large Silver Medals ſtruck upon this Occaſion were laid under each Plate. The Princeſs who ſtill wore her Crown with a moſt graceful Majeſty, had the Place of Honour at Table, and after Supper the King and Queen, accompanied by the Royal Family, and attended by the Chamberlains and Gentlemen in Waiting, conducted this illuſtrious Pair to the Palace of Charlottenburg, (which is appointed for their Reſidence in Town) through a continued Glare of Illuminations. Though we have lately had very foul and tempeſtuous Weather, the Day proved exceeding fair, and the Night calm and dark, ſo that every Thing appeared to the beſt Advantage, and the whole paſſed without any Accident or the leaſt Diſorder. The King of Denmark diſcovered his particular Satisfaction in a diſtinguiſh'd Manner the Morning of the Entry, by conferring the Order of the Elephant upon his Excellency Baron Sohlenthal. This is the higheſt Honour that any Subject here can attain to; but to render it more remarkable, and leave no Room to doubt of the real Occaſion of it, his Majeſty made no other Promotion that Day. The next Morning there was a very numerous Court both at Charlottenburg and Chriſtianburg, and in the Evening the Illuminations (which had been prepared all round the two Royal Palaces, and in every Street thro' which the Proceſſion paſſed) were lighted up again. Laſt Night Count Danneskiold, with the King's Permiſſion, entertained about 160 Perſons of the firſt Diſtinction with a very fine Supper and a Ball. The due Formalities, the decent Pomp, the Demonſtrations of publick Joy, and the infinite viſible Signs of Cordiality and Affection, which have appeared and ſtill appear on this Occaſion, being taken all together, compoſed a moſt noble and compleat Entertainment, ſuch an one as certainly never has been, nor perhaps ever will be exceeded at the Reception of any Princeſs in this Country.
